

Carrier Optimization

Turn Shipping Operations from a Cost Center to a Profit Center

Download PDF

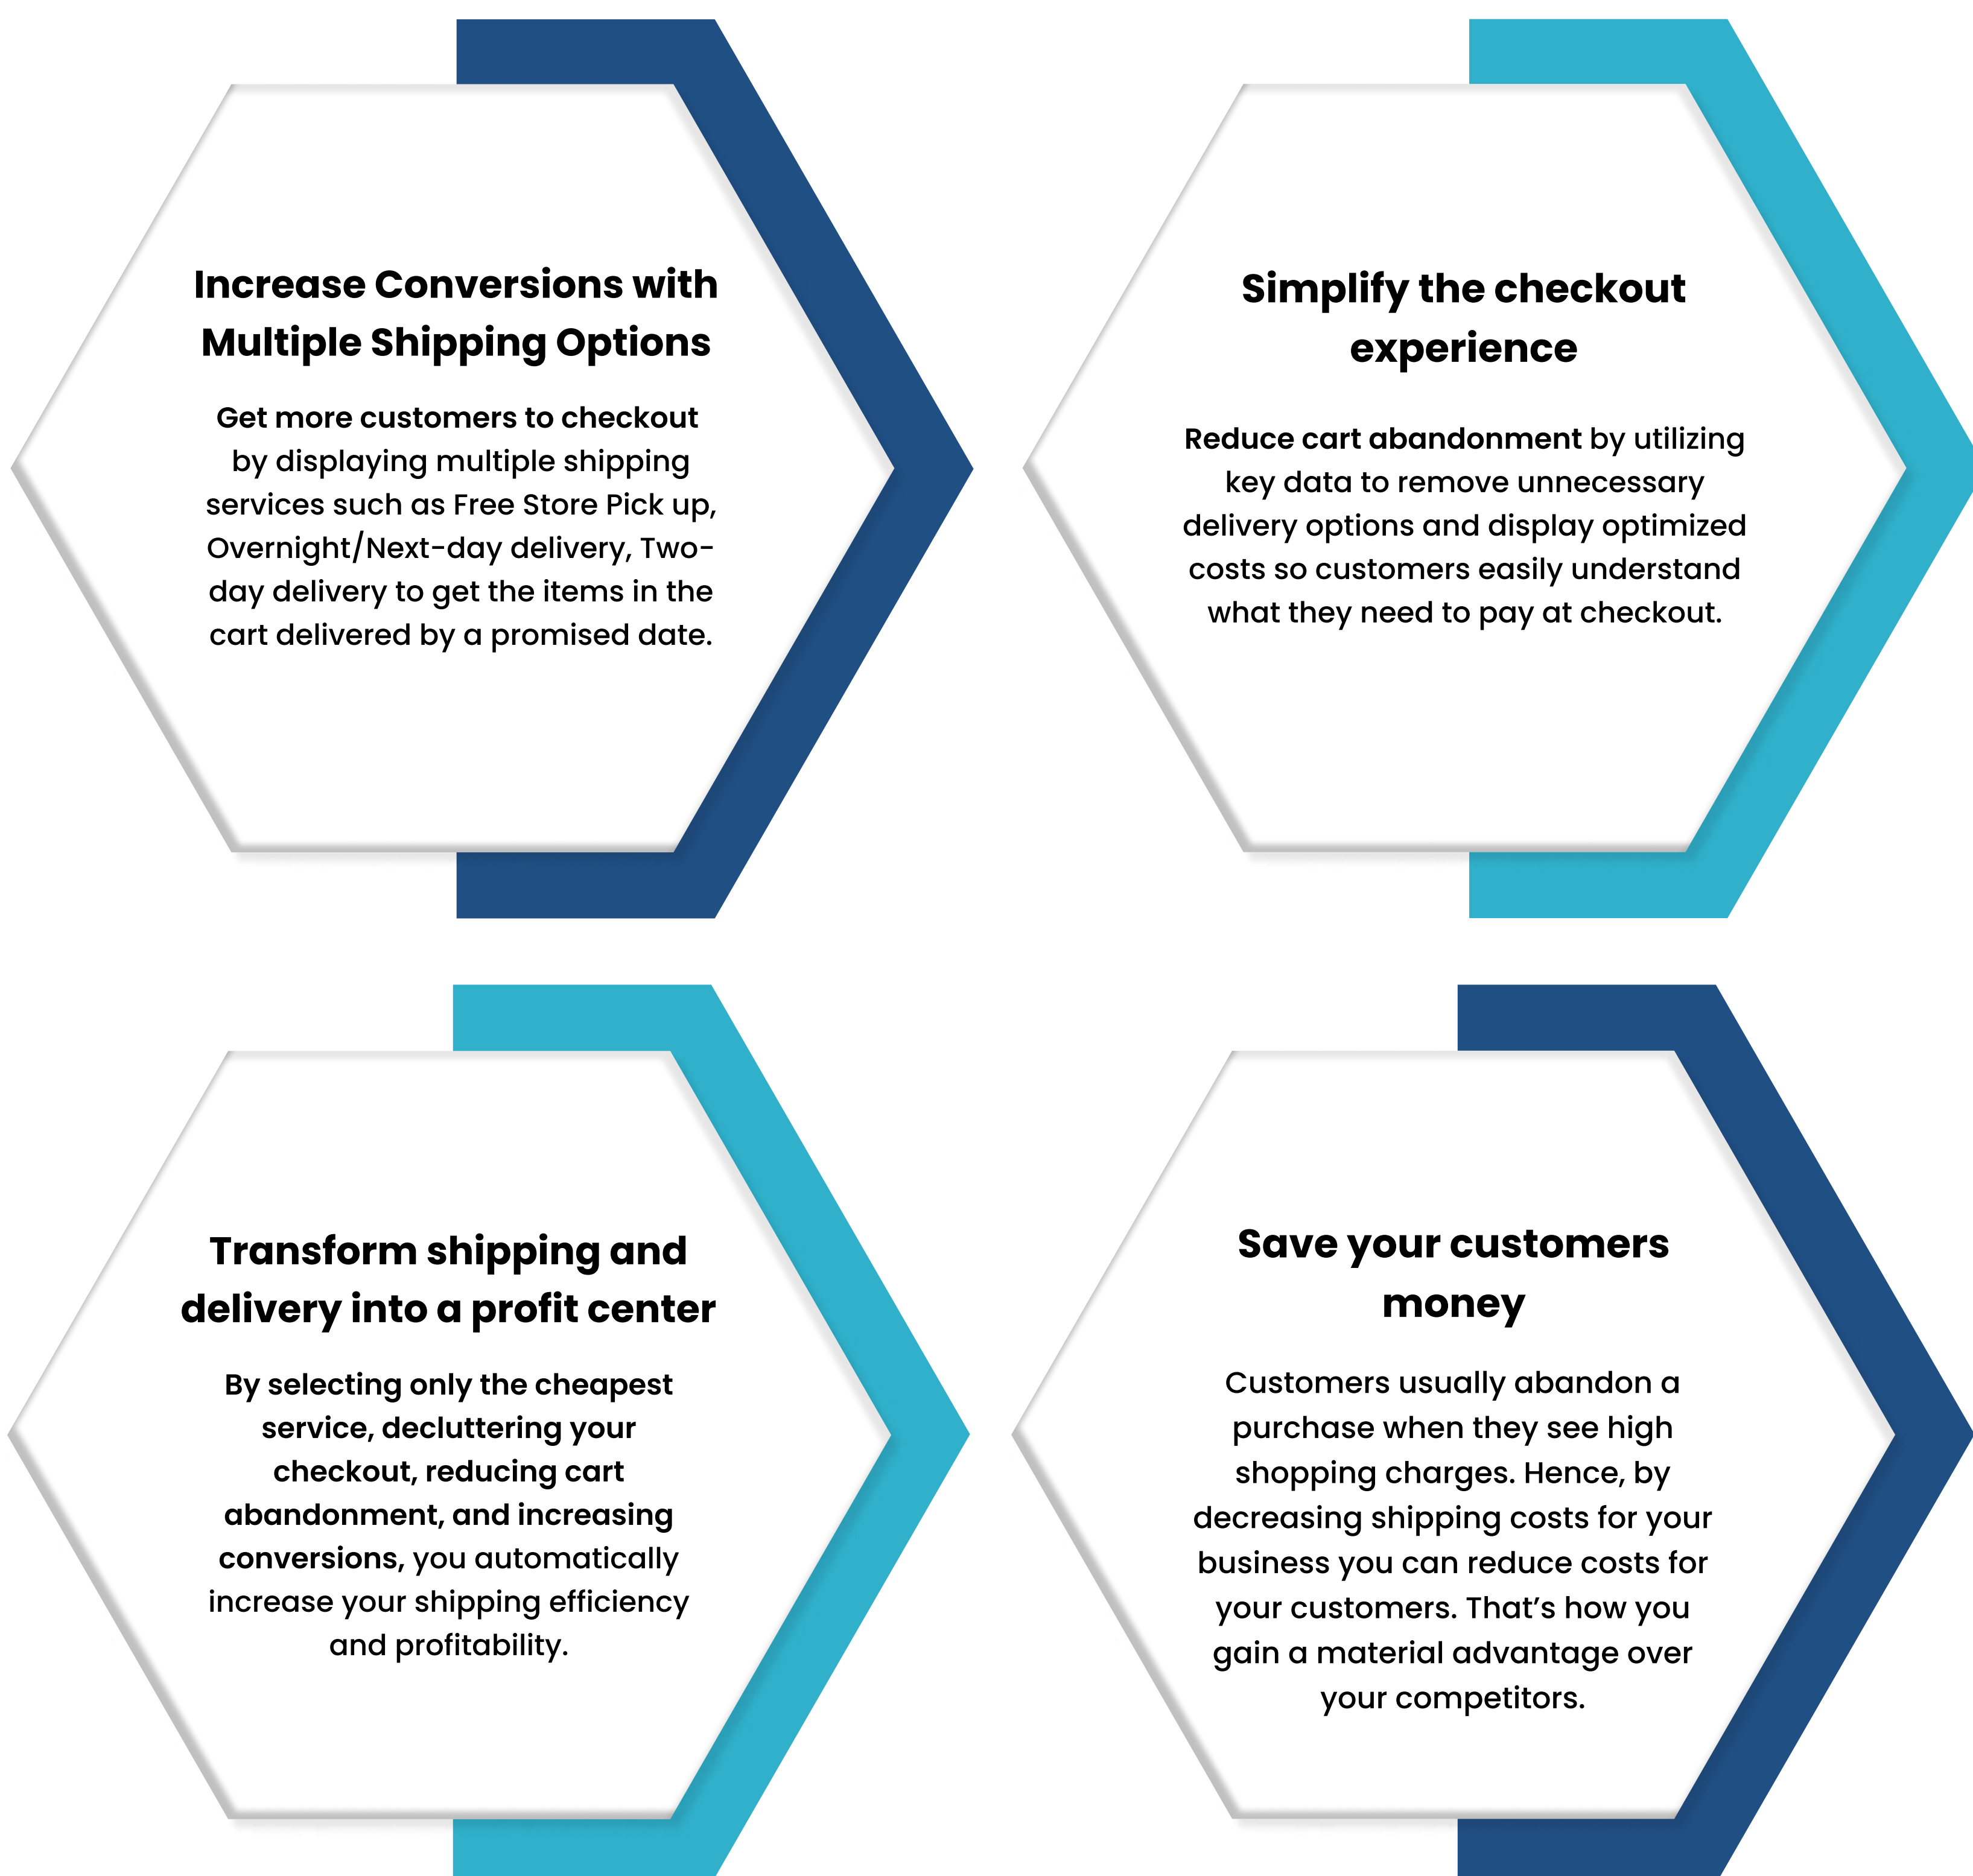

With high shipping costs and surcharges affecting the bottom line, delivery and fulfillment operations are a major cost center for retailers. eCommerce brands must now find a superior way to match customer delivery expectations without incurring high shipping costs.

FenixCommerce Carrier Optimization platform helps retailers unlock strategic value from their shipping operations by comparing multi-carrier shipping rates and services in real-time to ensure you're always picking the most cost-effective services to get every order delivered by the promised date.
